With both spouses home, we can set up a conference call during your lunch break or at another time that is convenient for you. In 30-45 minutes we can talk through the details of your Wills, Powers of Attorney and Advance Directives/Living Wills. Then the ball is in my court - I will draft your documents and mail them or drop them off at your home. You can review everything and we can coordinate a way to get everything executed. Hopefully we can meet in person to sign everything soon, but if not, we'll work together.	I look forward to working with you! I am working every day to service my existing clients and trying to be a resource during this troubling time. I've been practicing in New Providence for over 20 years, and love to meet and work with local residents. Many of my clients have been clients for 15-20+ years. While my pricing has always been reasonable, I am aware that these are difficult times for many people, so I am more than happy to work out flexible payment arrangements. It's more important to me that you have a good plan in place for your family and loved ones. Call me to discuss. Thanks, Meri-Beth
