Application for Appointment to Advisory Boards and Commissions

Guidelines for Applying for Citizen Advisory Boards and Commissions

- Please submit one application per board or commission for which you are applying. The application will be kept on file for two years.
- To allow a large number of citizens to serve on boards and commissions, the City Council policy allows individuals to serve on only one standing board or commission at a time. A current member of a board/commission who is a successful applicant for another board/commission will be required to choose one board/commission on which to serve.
- Board or committee members will serve a maximum of two consecutive terms when the length of the term is three years or more. Individuals serving terms less than three years will be limited to a total of six consecutive years of service.
- Current board or committee members must submit a new application at the end of their term if they wish to reapply. The deadline for applications from the incumbents is the same as the deadline for new applications.
- An individual may reapply for appointment to a board or commission after at least a one year hiatus from service.
- City of Plainfield employees may not serve on City of Plainfield boards or commissions except as specifically provided by the City Code, or as required to perform official duties.

In accordance with the Local Government Ethics Law (N.J.S.A 40 A: 9-22.1 et seq.) annual Financial Disclosure Statements must be filed by elected officials, certain government employees, and members of the housing authority, recreation commission, planning board, zoning board, board of health, board of education, and library board of trustees. Financial Disclosure statements indicate the source of the income but not the amount.
