Subject: Red Bank Fire Company article

Mr. Wingerter,

I am writing this to you in order to correct something seen in your article this morning titled “Red Bank Fire Company seeks cannabis retail license before planning board” and seeing our Department patch associated with it.

This Red Bank Fire Company has no association with the Red Bank Fire Department in any way aside from sharing a name likeness. The Fire Department would appreciate it if you would kindly remove all Red Fire Fire Department symbols from your article and write in a line within your title or article expressing the fact that we have no association with the company that is seeking this license.

I am available to answer any questions, or discuss this further if necessary.

We thank you for your time and assistance in this matter.

Respectfully,

Wayne Hartman
